Leadership of IIT Kharagpur

The Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur (IIT Kharagpur) is the oldest one of all IITs that was established in 1951. Since then, it has played a pivotal role in setting up the standard for technical education in independent India. IIT Kharagpur is still considered as the largest among all IITs in terms of students, faculty members, campus size, and for its' diverse range of courses offered. Over years, the institute has diversified its academic offerings beyond engineering and technology to include management, law, entrepreneurship and medical science within IIT System. Not only that, it has integrated the study of Happiness, Indian Knowledge System, Classical and Folk Arts beyond the core offerings.

About Partha Ghosh Academy of Leadership

IIT Kharagpur has started nurturing the leadership domain since 2017 when it conducted a leadership programme in collaboration with the University of Cambridge. The institute has a dedicated Academy for Leadership, first-of-the-kind in the IIT system, that conducts regular training programme for corporates, academia, government officials, and students. Besides, the Partha Ghosh Academy of Leadership at IIT Kharagpur organises regular lectures or events where eminent personalities like Mr. Narayan Murthy, Mr. R. Gopalkrishnan, Mr. T. V. Narendran, Dr. Kiran Bedi, Dr. Tessy Thomas, Prof. Ramgopal Rao, Shri Amitabh Kant, and many more has shared their thoughts on leadership.
